PART THREE

EXTRACTS FROM THE CONSTITUTION AND RULES

Clause 11

Membership of the Association shall consist of Ordinary Members, Associate Members, Honorary Life Members, Honorary Associate Members and Junior Associate Members.

No Ordinary or Associate Member of the Association shall also be a member of any other Association or Body the membership of which is not approved by Council.

The name and address of every member shall, on admission, be registered with the Secretary of the Association. Members shall be responsible for informing the Secretary of any change of address or management status, either by updating their contact details on the website, or by e-mail to the secretary.

Clause 12 (a)

(a) A candidate for transfer from Associate, or election, to the class of Ordinary Membership shall satisfy the following conditions:

- (i) he/she shall be the holder of a Mine Manager's Certificate of Competency for metalliferous mining issued in terms of the Mines and Works Regulations of the Republic of South Africa;
- (ii) he/she shall be in employment on a working metalliferous or diamondiferous mine;

(iii) he/she shall be the manager or a senior subordinate manager of such mine or hold a position equivalent thereto;

or (iv) he/she shall meet at least three out of the following four criteria

- Mine-based
- The principal decision maker with respect to operations
- Legally appointed or have a legally appointed person reporting to him
- Operations should be primarily underground.

In addition a candidate shall, if so required, satisfy the Council that the position referred to in 12(a)(iii) or 12(a)(iv) above carries a degree of authority and responsibility sufficient to warrant his/her admission to this/her class of membership. Any person appointed in terms of section 12(a)(iv) who is not the holder of a mine manager's certificate for metalliferous mining may only be admitted as an Ordinary member of the Association at the discretion of the Council.

- (b) Ordinary members in excess of one per mine shall be nominated by the manager of the mine concerned.
- (c) The annual subscription for Ordinary Members shall be decided by the Council each year.
- (d) Any Ordinary Member having been admitted to this/her class of membership in terms of 12(a)(i), 12(a)(ii) and 12(a)(iii) and being transferred to a Group Head Office or other vocation, which being a member of the Chamber of Mines of South Africa, may retain this/her class of membership at the discretion of the Council.

Clause 15

Subject to the terms of Clause 11, any person who is the holder of a Mine Manager's Certificate of Competency for metalliferous mining as set forth in Clause 12 and who is not an Ordinary Member in terms of the clause shall be eligible for Associate Membership of the Association provided that his/her position and qualifications are such as to warrant, in the opinion of the Council, his/her admission as an Associate Member.

In addition, any person who is not a holder of a Mine Manager's Certificate of Competency for metalliferous mining, but in the opinion of Council adequately satisfies the following requirements, may be admitted as an Associate Members:-

1. He/she is in the employ of an enterprise servicing the metalliferous mining industry
2. He/she hold a senior position of responsibility and decision-making within that enterprise
3. He/she holds acceptable qualification(s) other than a Manager's Certificate of Competency for metalliferous mining.

Every applicant for Associate Membership shall be sponsored by two Ordinary Members of the Association and shall be admitted at the discretion of the Council.

Clause 16

An Associate Member shall not have any right of voting nor shall he/she be eligible as a member of the Council, but he/she shall be entitled to take part in all discussions at General Meetings of the Association.

Clause 17

An Associate Member, on ceasing to be employed in mining, shall automatically cease to be a member of the Association unless the Council decides otherwise.

Clause 21

A candidate for election to the class of Junior Associate Member must be studying for a mine manager’s certificate and satisfy the following conditions:

- (i) have obtained a BSc (Mining) Eng degree or a National Diploma in metalliferous Mining or
- (ii) have obtained the A part of a metalliferous Manager’s Certificate.

Every applicant for Junior Associate Membership shall be sponsored by two Ordinary members of the Association, and shall be admitted at the discretion of the Council.

The annual subscription for Student Membership shall be decided by the Council each year.

Clause 22

A Junior Associate Member shall not have any right of voting nor shall he/she be eligible as a member of Council, but he/she shall be entitled to participate in General Meetings of the Association and to attend Technical Visits.

Clause 23

A Junior Associate Member, on ceasing to be employed in mining, shall automatically cease to be a member of the Association unless the Council decides otherwise

A Junior Associate Member shall be cease to be a member after three years if he/she/ has failed to pass his/her mine manager’s certificate.
